For our "over night" stay in FL we only packed 2 sets of clothes and basic toiletry and of course our 1 and only child - A 7 year old basset hound named Rebel. We were with out water for several days and electricity for weeks. MJ's parents were fourtunate to have only minimal roof damage and minor leaks. my mother lives next door and was in the same boat as I. We stayed with MJs parents till Oct. 20 when we received our Fema trailer on our property. We are both back to work by the grace of God and have replenished our basic clothing and necessity. We are currently re doing what was taken from ~~us~~ us. We have replaced all exterior doors and windows and have hung all insulation.
